From the news from Washington this morning it is fair to conclude that the tariff bill will not pass. The president of the Senate cannot find Democrate to serve on the Joint Committee of Conference since Mesers, Bayard and Beck resigned, and unless the whole committee is present to decide upon the points in difference no report can be made. The whole country will rejoice at this, because even as it was amended it was an iniquitous measure, prepared solely with a view to the demands of The Conference in Session Until Midthe monopolists in whose interest the Republican party has been run for years. The mext Congres; will be more competent to deal with the tariff and the internal revenue questions. There were present Frank Harriott, freight agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad; R. C. Vilas, Erie railroad; James S. Wilson, Pennsylvania railroad. C. S. Wilson presented a paper signed by the leading dry goods men of this city, and principal manufacturers of England, claiming that the present classification is unjust and injurious to business, and that a bigher injurious to business, and that a higher relative charge is made on sheetings than on any other textile fabrics. Others also spoke on the subject to the same effect. Harriott requested the statement in writing showing the charges on the Western and Southern roads to manufactures in the

"THEY who cry loudest are not always the most burt." Kidney-Wort does its work like the Good Samaritan, quickly, unostentationsly, but with great thoroughness. A New Hampshire lady writes: "Mother has been afflicted for years with kidney disease. Last spring she was very ill and had an alarming pain and numbness in one side. Kidney-Wort proved a great blessing, and has completely cured her."

The Harvard Annex. Boston, March I.—The "annex" to Harvard College, composed of lady pupils, is in its fourth year, and the result has been most satisfactory. The standard of work is exceptionally high; in a number of instances students averaged thirty-five to forty. The annex's annual course is $209, or $150 more than Harvard.
